

STUDIES OF CIVILIZATIONS

Edited by Andrew Targowski,

President of the International Society for the Comparative Study of Civilizations

Andrew Targowski — Civilization's Impact upon Education in the IIIrd Millennium	5
---	---

PRECURSORS OF CIVILIZATIONAL SCIENCE

Vladimir Alalykin-Izvekov — Sorokin's Contribution to the Civilizational Theory and Science	33
Anthony M. Stevens-Arroyo — Fire and Force: Civilization as Noosphere in the Works of Teilhard de Chardin	53
Roman Zawadzki — Feliks Koneczny. The Forgotten Philosopher of History and Civilization	67

THE QUESTION OF COOPERATION IN THE WORLD OF MULTIPLE CIVILIZATIONS

Piotr Balcerowicz — Rationality as a Common Public Domain	73
Ashok Kumar Malhotra — Reflections on the Clash or Reconciliation of Civilizations	95
Stephen Blaha — The Future of Civilizations	109
Pedro Geiger — Civilization, Mode of Production, Ages of History and the Three-Legged Movements	123
Marek J. Celiński — The Concepts of Progress and Regress in Relation to Civilizations	135
Norman C. Rothman — Islam as a Multi-Faceted Phenomenon in Culture: The Case of Indonesia

*

Editors' Note	155
----------------------------	-----

* * *

BOOK REVIEW: The Oxford History of Byzantium (J. Reed Smith)	157
Call for Papers . International Society for the Comparative Study of Civilizations. 42nd annual international conference, June 6–9, 2012	IV