

TRANSCENDENTAL PHILOSOPHY IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Editorial — Transcendental Philosophy in the 21st Century 5

I. TRANSCENDENTAL PHILOSOPHY IN FLUX

Rafał Michalski — Transcendental Elements in the Philosophy of Helmuth Plessner	7
Wojciech Włoch — Epistemological–Normative Function of the Basic Norm in Hans Kelsen’s Pure Theory of Law	25
Marcin Poręba — Two Concepts of Apriority	43
Andrzej Leder — Strangeness and Unity. Freud and the Kantian Condition of Synthetic Unity of Apperception	55
Iwona Lorenc — Between Transcendentalism and Hermeneutics: From Husserl to Heidegger	73
Norbert Leśniewski — Ontologization of Transcendentalism. Historical-Intentional Aspect of Heidegger’s Interpretation of Kant’s Critique of Pure Reason	87
Andrzej Lisak — Neoneo-Kantianism—Transcendental Philosophy as a Reflection on Validity (Geltung)	101

II. TRANSCENDENTALISM AND 21ST-CENTURY
PHILOSOPHICAL PROBLEMS

Bolesław Andrzejewski — Transcendental Philosophy and Communication	115
Przemysław Parszutowicz — Ernst Cassirer’s Idea of the Critique of Knowledge	133
Jarosław Rolewski — Husserl’s Philosophy of Science	145
Marek Maciejczak — Ideas and Principles in Immanuel Kant’s Critique of Pure Reason	161

* * *

Conference Announcement 183