

A Change in Dialogue and Universalism 5

TECHNICS, MEDITATION, ATMOSPHERES. THE MAIN AREAS
OF GERNOT BÖHME'S PHILOSOPHY

Edited by Stanisław Czerniak

Editorial 7
Editor's Note 9

Gernot Böhme's Papers:

1. What Kind of Society Do We Want to Live in? 11
2. Meditation as the Exploration of Forms of Consciousness 21
3. Being Human Well. A Proto-ethic 32
4. My Body—My Lived-body 44
5. The Voice in Bodily Space 54
6. Light and Space. On the Phenomenology of Light 62
About Gernot Böhme 74
Gisbert Hoffmann — The Median Mode of Being 77
Rudolf Wolfgang Müller — Gernot Böhme—Anima Naturaliter Japonica 91
Beata Frydryczak — Landscape Garden as a Paradigmatic Model of Relationships between Human and Nature 103
Teresa Pełkala — On the Aesthetic Experience of Nature and Time 115
Stanisław Czerniak — Between the Philosophy of Science and Philosophical Anthropology. Gernot Böhme's Critical Philosophy of Technology 125
Stanisław Czerniak — The Philosophy of Gernot Böhme and Critical Theory.
Doctrinal Positions and Interdisciplinary Mediations 147

RELIGIONS AND THE HUMAN WORLD

Hisanori Kato — Islamic Fundamentalists' Approach to Multiculturalism.
The Case of Al-mukmin School in Indonesia 171
Mikhail I. Mikhailov — The Aesthetic Meaning of Catholicism and Orthodoxy 187