

VARIA: CLASHES OF CULTURES, RELIGIONS
AND MODELS OF DEMOCRACY;
MAX SCHELER'S SELECTED CONCEPTIONS

Edited by Małgorzata Czarnocka and Stanisław Czerniak

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Editorial — Varia: Clashes of Cultures, Religions and Models of Democracy;Max Scheler's Selected Conceptions.....  | 5   |
| Michael Mitias — Possibility of Friendship between Religions .....   | 9   |
| Kevin M. Brien — The Confucian and Marxian Ways: Ironic Affinities .....   | 39  |
| Temisanren Ebijuwa — The Public Sphere, Deweyan Democracy and RationalDiscourse in Africa .....  | 67  |
| Stanisław Czerniak — Max Scheler's Pluralistic Conception of Knowledge .....   | 83  |
| Stanisław Czerniak — The Consistence of the Assumptions of the Sociologyof Knowledge with Those of Philosophical Anthropology (On the Exampleof Max Scheler) ..... | 95  |
| Małgorzata Czarnocka — The Duality of the Cognitive Subject in the Conceptionof Max Scheler .....  | 113 |
| Aivaras Stepukonis — The Functionalization of Essential ( A Priori ) Knowledge:A Close Look at Max Scheler's Epistemology.....                                  | 137 |