

PHILOSOPHY IN AN AGE OF CRISIS:
CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS

PART I
THE SOCIO-POLITICAL SPHERE OF THE HUMAN WORLD

Editorial	5
Charles Brown — Resisting Nihilism since 1989. Keynote Address to the 12th World Congress of the International Society for Universal Dialogue, Lima, Peru	9
Steven V. Hicks — Nationalism, Globalism, and the Challenges to Universal Dialogue	17
Andrew Fiala — On Thinking Globally and Acting Locally: Resurgent Nationalism and the Dialectic of Cosmopolitan Localism	37
Manjulika Ghosh — Toward a Critique of Nationalism as a Theory of the Nation-State	57
Ogbujah Columbus — Nationalism, Populism and the Challenge to the Ethics of Universalism	67
Omer Moussaly — Perennial Questions of Political Philosophy	85
Gordon C. F. Bearn — Political Philosophy without Human Content	105
Józef L. Krakowiak — The Role of Marxian Alienation Theory in Marx’s Relational-Dynamic Philosophy of Social Being	117
Jean A. Campbell — Freedom, Self-Determination and Automation: Considering Political Impulses in the Age of Digitalization	147
Krzysztof Przybyszewski — Safety in the Global World: Humanistic and Institutional Aspects	159
Necip Fikri Alican — Fool Me Once, Shame On You, Fool Me Twice, Shame On Me: The Alleged Prisoner’s Dilemma in Hobbes’s Social Contract	183
Edward Shiener S. Landoy — Being in Transit: Space, Identities, and Belonging	205
Olatunji A. Oyeshile, Omotayo Oladebo — Beyond Capitalism and Marxism: Towards a New Theory of African Development	217
Jakub Górski — The Hegemonic Subjectification in Ernesto Laclau’s Theory of Discourse	233