

DO WE NEED A NEW ENLIGHTENMENT
FOR THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY?

Part II

Guest Editor: Robert Elliott Allinson

Editorial 5

1. FEMALE EMANCIPATION

Debra Berghoffen — The Body of Rights: The Right to the Body 19
Karen Green — Restoring Catharine Macaulay's Enlightenment
Republicanism? 39
Odile Richard — Reading Diderot's Novels and Correspondence: What Can
This Philosopher Teach Us about the Education of Young People? 59

2. THE NON-EUROPEAN ENLIGHTENMENT

Xing Guozhong, Shang Chen — Light through Time and Space: The Influence of Confucian Humanism on the European Enlightenment 75
David Chai — Shitao and the Enlightening Experience of Painting 93
Dag Herbjørnsrud — The Quest for a Global Age of Reason. Part I: Asia,
Africa, the Greeks and the Enlightenment Roots 113
Dag Herbjørnsrud — The Quest for a Global Age of Reason. Part II: Cultural Appropriation and Racism in the Name of Enlightenment 133
Selusi Ambrogio — Discording Enlightenment on China: Pierre Bayle's
Skepticism vs Johan Jacob Brucker's Exoticism 157
Alexander Cook — Ideology or History as "Idéologie:" C. F Volney and the Uses of the Past in Revolutionary France 179
Meng Zhang — Passionate Enlightenment Redeeming Modernity through
David Hume 197

3. REASON AND RELIGION

Anna Tomaszewska — Spinoza's Critique and the Making of Modern Religion in the Enlightenment Era 217
Brian Klug — Do We Need a New Nathan the Wise? 233

4. THE METAPHYSICS OF THE ENLIGHTENMENT

Alessandro Pinzani — Do We Need a Metaphysics of Morals. On the Actuality of Kant's Project of Grounding A Priori Practical Principles 249
Ollie Koistinen — Spinoza's Ode to Reason 265